

REMARKS

Upon reviewing the claims in this allowed application, a typographical error was noted in Claim 29, and this led to a realization that the claim language thereof should be clarified in the manner in which that claim is now presented. In any event, the terms of Claim 29 coincide with the "reasons for allowance" which were specified in the attachment to the Notice of Allowance.

Applicant's undersigned attorney may be reached in our New York Office by telephone at (212) 218-2100. All correspondence should continue to be directed to our address listed below.

Respectfully submitted,
